Terms of Service - Combine Orders & Ship Together

Last Updated: June 2026

Acceptance of Terms

By installing or using the Combine Orders & Ship Together application, you agree to these Terms of Service.

Service Description

The application enables merchants to identify eligible orders, offer combined shipping options, manage combined shipment groups, and view related order information within BigCommerce.

Merchant Responsibilities

Merchants are responsible for configuring the application, reviewing combined shipment settings, verifying shipping charges, and ensuring compliance with applicable laws and carrier requirements.

Availability

We strive to provide reliable service but do not guarantee uninterrupted availability. Maintenance, updates, and third-party platform issues may affect service availability.

Data Access

The application requires access to certain store, order, customer, shipping, and fulfillment information necessary to provide its functionality.

Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Lantera shall not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages arising from the use of the application.

Disclaimer of Warranties

The application is provided on an 'as is' and 'as available' basis without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied.

Termination

You may stop using the application at any time by uninstalling it. We reserve the right to suspend or terminate access in cases of misuse, abuse, or violation of these terms.

Changes to Terms

We may update these Terms of Service from time to time. Continued use of the application after changes become effective constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

Governing Law

These Terms of Service shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Spain, without regard to conflict of law principles.
